The Newsletter Committee

2017-18

The college Newsletter aims at documentation of the curricular, co-curricular and the extra-curricular activities taking place in the college. This will lead to better record keeping for NAAC and provide greater visibility to the achievements of the students and thus prove to be a sense of motivation for other students as well. The newsletter gives better exposure of the college activities to the outside world. Making students an important part of the newsletter instills a sense of responsibility among the students thereby improve their confidence and caters to overall student development.
